

Littleton is a place where everyone belongs. You don't have to fit in here; there is a spot just for you, just as you are. We are more than academics and athletics, more than grades and winning records. We are bonded by genuine acceptance of everyone and love for all that makes each lion unique.

Where can you find a place to come home to?

left to right on a positive note. Max Ratcliff (10) pauses from playing his instrument to enjoy his surroundings. "Band has been a very positive experience for me. I have made lots of friends and have had fun doing it," said Ratcliff, photo by lane gray tug of war triumph! Mallory Coughlin (12) smiles in lieu of her tug of war victory during the homecoming pep rally. "I would describe the Littleton community as really welcoming, everyone is super nice and really easy to get along with!" Coughlin shared, photo by lane gray quarterback contemplations. Timothy Higgins (11) pauses in thought before running a play. "We are a tight knit football team with an amazing coaching staff and amazing parents supporting us," proclaimed Higgins, photo by annajane geddes uncontrollable joy. Diana Conway (11) laughs beautifully with her fellow guard members. Conway said, "Colorgaurd is a group of strong teenagers that come together as family," photo by kaiden hamilton chant and shout! Senior Ella Jahns erupts with enthusiasm in the crowd. "Littleton has a very accepting atmosphere, everyone is doing their own thing and that's what makes Littleton so awesome," Jahns replied, photo by lane gray
