

And she's safe. After a base hit from her teammate, JV softball player Annika Bennett-Toussaint '24 slides into home and scores a run for her team. The sophomore took to the high school field for the first time this year and found joy in the experience. "I like to hype myself up," Bennett-Toussaint said. "If anybody is down, I make sure [to help them have] a good time. I like to make it positive."
