Just Shooting Hoops During a varsity basketball game against Overland High School, Kean Lloyd (11) dunked over Overland student Mohammed Sultan (12). "I think it's special to play on varsity because it shows how hard you worked and it's... a special accomplishment that not everybody gets to be a part of," Lloyd said. The boys varsity basketball team took pride in not only their individual accomplishments, but their work together as a team that set them up for a positive season.
