

IT'S YOUR TIME

1. WITH ENTHUSIASM, SCARLET SLOSS, 11, hypes up the crowd. The rivalry game with Heritage was Sloss' favorite performance. "Sometimes I'm really nervous [before a big performance] and other times it doesn't feel like there's anything to worry about," Sloss said. Photo by K. Tucker. 2. APPROACHING THE FINISH LINE, EMILY LAMONTAGNE, 11, strides forward. Lamontagne placed first in the Warrior Invitational. "Cross country helped me grow as a person because it allowed me to be competitive while also doing something I love," Lamontagne said. Photo by A. Peterlin. 3. AT THE HOMECOMING PEP RALLY, FINNEGAN "FINN" HAUHUTH, 11, leaps out of the crowd. This was the first homecoming pep rally since 2019. "My school spirit has dramatically increased from when I first came into Arapahoe. I'm sure it has that effect on just about everyone within the building," Hauhuth said. Photo by K. Tucker. 4. FOLLOWING THROUGH HIS SWING, MAX ZADVORNY, 11, competes at the Colorado Springs Country Club. The varsity boys golf team placed first in state with an overall score of 438. It was the team's first state title since 1988. Photo by S. Pallman.
