UNDER THE NIGHT LIGHTS AND FITTED IN BLACK AND GOLD, SOPHIA STRAND, 11, AND KENDAL EAKIN, 12, play the clarinet. They were two of the four clarinets in marching band this year, and number that was unusually low. "It was hard being half the size of the bands that we competed with but we pushed through it and tried to not let it get us down too much. The mentality was 'Do the best with what we have,'" Strand said. Photo by A. Evangelista.
