DRAMARAMA. During the first week of drama class, Charlotte Moir (6) participates in teambuilding games. For the first time in 18 months, students could be closer than six feet. "With COVID, I hadn't known many people but that game really helped me learn about my classmates," Moir said.

ALL TOGETHER NOW. Eighth graders Caitlyn Nguyen, Tate Wride, Natalie Cowgill, Alyson Ereksen, Konnie Fear, and Nora Scott-Flood rehearse for the fall concert with the Eighth Grade Orchestra. Unlike last year, having the whole class together in person was a welcome relief. "This year we have a different teacher. I like her, and I think the pieces we play are a good difficulty level for us," Scott-Flood said.
