We rise and come together.
We rise and leave the past.
We rise and are ready to conquer.
We rise because we have amassed.

After experiencing the peaks and valleys of the previous year, we were unaware of what awaited us inside our school's walls. Events that we once perceived as normal, now seem unfamiliar. Cautiously we climbed, claiming these events as our own.

Together we conquer the challenges and seek a new horizon. Together we Ascend.

Our courage to summit these mountains of uncertainty have provided us with strength. It is that strength that defines us and will continue to define us: it is not what we are rising from, but what we are rising to. Together, we Ascend.
