

TOGETHER we are ONE

"Not everyone knows who I personally am, but everyone knows that CT is the Cougar's Den, so I got to embody that vision through Felix."
- Felix

As One, our chants echoed through Legacy Stadium while we watched the football team take on Creek.

We found our voice alongside our teammates and friends on the court, in the theater, and in the classrooms.

We watched together as the seniors beat the juniors during the first Powderpuff game in over two years.

We gathered together as one to celebrate our adversity through a global pandemic, strapping the masks back on to keep our friends safe.

We met under the stars, coming together to share a dance on a cool October night in the lower parking lot.

We won together, we lost together, we cried together, and we cheered together.

Together, we persevered, hand in hand, through the good, the bad, and the ugly.

As we became ONE, one school, one community, one unstoppable, and one unbreakable force.

Hear Us Chant Students gathered at Legacy Stadium to support their varsity football team. "Going out to the big games is always fun because everyone gets really involved in the chants," Mitchell Morris (12) said. The football team played Far Northeast High School. Photo courtesy of Steve Abeyta

Team Parade Celebrating homecoming festivities, the varsity girls volleyball team raced across the field. "It was really cool to be in front of the whole school with my team," Katherine Hubbard (12) said. The team was recognized in front of the school. Photo by A. Farrell

Dubs Only The annual Powderpuff game happened for the first time in two years, on Oct. 6. "I loved to get out on the field and carry on some of the school traditions with my friends," Juliana Divino (12) said. United Together Unified cheer offered a variety of different students to come together and stand as one. "Being able to include them with everything that we can is really cool," Megan Alexander (10) said. Unified cheer celebrated the assembly. Photo by A. Farrell

Normalcy In the face of a global pandemic, students had to redefine what normalcy meant. "After the pandemic I've kind of learned to be okay, like being alone," Ahlana Galbreath (10) said. The pandemic caused many changes throughout everyone's lives. Photo by T. Gluckler

School Spirit Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the traditional Homecoming assembly was moved outside. "I liked it outside more, we could take our masks off and focus on the events rather than the pandemic," Kayla Harris (12) said. The assembly was held at Legacy Stadium. Photo by T. Gluckler

The Cougar Roar The boys varsity football team raced onto the field, opening their game against Creek. "Getting back on the field with my boys felt nice, we're a family and the pandemic didn't stop that," Kobe Euell (12) said. The community rallied behind their team. *Photo courtesy of J.
