

Lookin' for Warmth

Many students spent their holidays on warm Florida beaches in order to avoid the chilly Colorado air. Carolyn Ennis traveled to Pensacola Beach and her favorite parts of her trip were "all of the nice beach front restaurants and going for long walks along the beach to collect shells." Caleb Nolan went for a family reunion and shared, "All my cousins and my aunts and uncles were there so it was a big 13 person group. Some of my family lives in Iowa so they came down from there."

Aleya Beimers stated, "My favorite part of the trip was spending time with my family, especially the ones I hadn't seen in a while. It was really fun because we got to hold baby alligators, feed flamingos, and go to an escape room. Overall I made a ton of great memories with my family."

Snow-Cation. Winter in Colorado is the perfect time to go to the mountains and play in the snow. Caden McCormick skied at Vail over break. He said he loves skiing because of "the style that comes with freestyle because it expands the realm of what people are able to do." Diego Saenz didn't go into the mountains over winter break, but went sledding by his house instead. "We go sledding near Westminster City Park and sled down this big hill. It's not at the park but it's near it. My sister and I play this game where we try to get the furthest, or run into the snowmen that people build, which is kinda mean." Gianna Niccolai, who went skiing over winter break with her family, said, "My favorite part of skiing was doing it with my family. It's something we can bond over and do together." Kelton Ayars went snowshoeing with his boy scout troop at Lost Lake Trail and shared, "The lake was all frozen over and we walked right across it, it was a really cool blueish color, it was a really good hike." Samantha Duncan went snowboarding in Vail. "I fell down a couple of times, it was a vibe though," she commented.
