

ready for victory

JUNIOR VARSITY GIRLS VOLLEYBALL HAVE THEIR FIRST HOME GAME

Sophia Valentine (10) gets ready to hit a ball from the opposing team, concentrated on the point ahead. "Getting to know my teammates was the best part of the season because we always had really fun practices," claimed Valentine. photo by lane gray

Taryn Fortna (11) gets into the huddle with the team after winning the set. "My favorite part of volleyball this year was forming relationships with everyone on the team and dancing during practice," Fortna remarked. photo by lane gray

4. right this way! Morgan Kelly (12) guides alumni entering the school to the start of their tour. "The best part was seeing people see their old friends that they didn't know were there," said Kelly. photo by lane gray 5. tour guide talk. James Regan (12) and Victoria Majeske (12) converse amongst themselves while showing the athletic amenities. "As senior class president, I get to plan our class reunion so it was really interesting to see this class reunite after all this time," claimed Majeske. photo by karissa branine

Autumn 1971 school tour

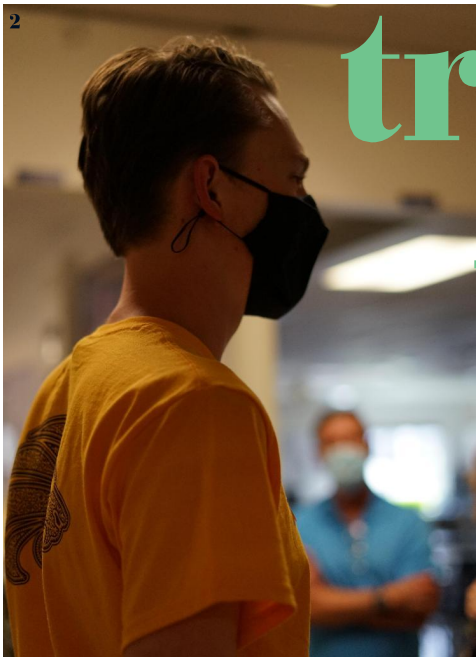

20 how we see it

What is your favorite fast food chain?

"Chipotle" Sydney Babcock (9)

"Chipolte" Luca Ellecissor (10)

tradition to treasure

1970 &1971 ALUMNI TOUR LHS TO CELEBRATE THE 50 YEAR REUNION

As the doors from the main entrance opened with a warm welcome from current students, the classes of 1970 and 1971 came into the building with a clear sense of reunification and pride. Despite the many editions and aspects of the school that have changed entirely since they had walked the halls, many of the men and women were thrilled to look back on their part of the rich culture and history that is the inner workings of Littleton High School. Students lead separate tour groups around the school and Alexandra Bangs (12) found that, "As a tour guide, I led a group of about a dozen people who were both from the '70 and '71 classes and we walked around the buildings and stopped in them just to look around and talk. We ran into Mr. Garner and got to talk to him about what makes Littleton so great and why they can still be proud of it 50 years after they went here." Students, faculty, and alumni visitors alike had the opportunity to have excellent insight into the core aspects of Littleton that truly transcend time from all lenses.

Seasons and Sports

STUDENTS DEBATE WHICH SEASON HAS THE BEST SPORTS

1. sharing history. Eden Tripp (11) and Noura Ali Abid (11) answer questions about the current state of LHS. "The tour was incredibly successful and eye opening, I loved seeing the classes recall stories of their high school career together," shared Tripp. photo by lane gray 2. all the information. Alexandra Bangs (12) takes the alumni on a tour of the building, beginning with the front entrance. "The night was used to kind of show them what Littleton High School still looked like and how it has evolved since they had been here but also to celebrate the connections they have to this school," Bangs commented. photo by karissa branine 3. new school, same smiles. Sophomore Vincent Anderson beams while showcasing the history of the north gym. "It was really fun to be able to connect to the LHS community today and from that time as well." photo by lane gray

"Spring sports are bomb!"
Erick Pisano
Diaz (10)

"I like fall sports, they're chill."
Max
Stragand (9)

August 23rd-29th

"Sonic" Arianna Bergeron (11)

"Cane's" Mallory Coughlin (12)

gray, branine

21