ALONG FOR THE RIDE. Colby Siegman '25 throws T-shirts as Matthew Tschida '22 stands on a bale of hay as the two boys ride in the FFA float in the Homecoming Parade on Oct. 1. photo by carmichael. LET ME TAKE A SELFIE. Kelsi Veik '23 takes a selfie with Kynadi Fairchild '23, Taylor Herrera '23 and Andi Jackson '23 in their "white lie" themed T-shirts during halftime of the Dakota Ridge football game in the student section on Sept. 24. photo by r.weidemann

KELSI VEIK '22

"Football games are where everyone is at on a Friday night. It's something to look forward to as the crowd is packed. Everyone is dressed up for the theme and we are ready to cheer on the boys."

MATTHEW TSCHIDA '22

"I am part of the agriculture community and through FFA I get to be around those who are part of that lifestyle. With FFA, we do a lot of things for the community. I've learned a lot of life lessons and leadership skills through my involvement, and I plan to take those with me to the United State Army."

AND THIS SHOULD CONVINCE YOU

IF YOU COULD TEACH ANY CLASS FOR A DAY, WHAT WOULD IT BE?

RILEY EARNST '24
"I would like to teach a gaming class because I know there's a lot of people that like that type of stuff. I think it would be really fun to make it a standard in our school to take that class."

JAMES GARCIA, SECURITY
"I would like to teach Teen Law because I know a lot about it and have a degree in Criminal Justice. We have the class, but I would love to bring my perspective."

LUIS AGUILAR '23
"I would teach history because I like learning about wars and everything that has to do with that. I feel like I would try to find a way to make it really interesting for students."

ALICIA ZAPIEN '23
"I would teach Mythology because I really enjoy learning about that type of stuff and think it would be interesting to teach. I really enjoyed the class here."

VIVIAN HINDMAN '23
"It would have to teach math, but I wouldn't actually teach it. I would just give everyone a free day because math is hard, and they deserve a break."

NICKI MCCLAY, SECURITY
"I think I would probably teach a PE class because I had so much fun in those classes anyway when I was a paraprofessional here."

LOGAN O'BRIEN '25
"History because I feel like history teachers are more liked in school because they are more relaxed. I would want to have that from my students."

ELISE AHO '22
"I would actually like to teach Calculus for a day. I love math. Math has always been my best subject, and I think it would be fun to help others love it, too."