

1. PLAY YOUR PART: During callback auditions for the spring musical on Nov. 29, Rynne Brown '24 auditions for the part of Ms. Adelaide. Brown did not receive that part, but she still had a part in the musical "Guys and Dolls." "I am mostly looking forward to show night. Show night is so fun and although it can be scary, I live by turning the nerves into excitement," Brown said. 2. COURTED AND CROWNED: During the homecoming dance on Oct. 2, Taimoor Sajid '23 and friends Ace Malone '23 and Kevin Tashie '23 pose for a picture. Sajid was voted on the homecoming court by classmates and was part of the crowning ceremony during the dance. "It felt pretty cool to be on homecoming court. The whole experience with the football game and the crowning was really fun, especially with all my friends hyping me up," Sajid said. 3. GET LOUD: At the first football game of the season, Mason Swenson '23 encourages the crowd to get loud and rowdy. The game ended in a win and the crowd and cheer team kept up the energy throughout the game. "It was good to be back and be able to get the crowd to go along with our chants," Swenson said.

4. ROLL THE DICE: In preparation for the spring musical, Devin Heppenstall '22 is measured by the costume team. "Guys and Dolls" was the spring musical that Heppenstall acted in. "The musical is the thing I love most about coming here. Even staying here late, I'm not as tired because I'm into it. We get cool lights and cool hats and we get to throw fake money; it's fun," Heppenstall said. 5. SENIOR SPIRIT: Jumping and shouting, Jacob Guillory '22 and friends bring the energy to the senior class. The group was at the front cheering for their final showdown. "It was so much fun. We always know how to bring the energy and it's important for the last one too," Guillory said.
