

BEFORE

"It was so fun to have my siblings dress up and put on their costumes before going, and playing the games in the classrooms and getting candy, they loved it so much," Ciara Baker '25 said.

DURING

"I did a stand with best buddies, where it was really cute and fun. You would shoot a basketball and walk around the table to get your candy; it was cool to see the little kids react and be interactive with the older kids," Baker said.

AFTER

"After cleaning up our Charlie Brown themed stand, we were able to decorate the yearbook room and help reuse what we had spent hours making, which made us feel good that we weren't putting anything to waste," Sarah Breed '25 said.

CHILDREN IN COSTUMES EXPLORE TRICK-OR-TREAT STREET IN HOPES OF CANDY AND A GOOD SPOOK

CANDY Land

Why did you choose to dress up as Moira Rose for Halloween?
"I love the show 'Schitt's Creek' and I happened to already own a pink wig. So I thought it was a good fit," Ms. Katelyn Frazier said.

TEACHER DRESSES UP AS A TV SHOW CHARACTER pretty in PINK

1. DANCING QUEEN: In the courtyard Mallory Frohardt '24 dances with a friend during the Homecoming dance on Oct. 2. Frohardt danced on the makeshift dance floor which spanned from the courtyard into the parking lot. "I liked all of the music that they played," Frohardt said.

2. COURT KING: After the announcement of his nomination to the Homecoming Court, Sean Harris '22 celebrates with his friends. Harris was surprised to win the title of Homecoming King Oct. 2 after the court was announced the night before during the varsity football game. "It was an honor, to say the least. It felt pretty cool, how my peers valued me and selected me to win that award. I was very thankful and humbled that my peers would vote for me. I honestly didn't know whether or not I would win, because there were other really great nominees for the position. [Clayton Mullens '22] and Herschel [Craig '22] are just two really good dudes, so in my eyes we all got the award," Harris said. 3. AWAY FROM

THE FLOOR: Instead of dancing with the crowd, Eli Thayer '23 jumps onto one of the inflatables inside the commons. Student Government rented the inflatables to give students an indoor space away from the dance floor. "I went with a group and we took pictures at Daniels Park. The most basic spot," Thayer said. 4. DANCING IN THE DARK: During his first homecoming, Owen Mehring '24 dances with Cameron Yonce '24. The outdoor homecoming was made to be more COVID-19 friendly, as it was the first all-school dance since the start of the pandemic. "I liked the dance floor and how they just had the lights over the dance floor. It was just a really cool look to it," Mehring said.

STUDENTS GO TO ALL THE ADVISEMENTS TO GET CANDY

"Trick-or-treating in the mobiles was not my favorite experience, but I still got candy. I wouldn't mind if the school did it again. I liked all the classrooms," Isaac Yore '25 said.

"I thought trick-or-treating in the mobiles was pretty cool; it was something different. The school should do it again because it was pretty fun to go around and get candy," Juan Miranda '24 said.

MOBILE monsters

thriller DANCE

STUDENTS SHOW OFF THEIR MOVES AT THE HALLOWEEN DANCE

"My favorite part of the Halloween dance was being able to hang out with friends, and there was a kid dressed up as Pitbull and they were in the middle of a dance circle. It was a blast. There were some super cool costumes, but overall Pitbull was my favorite costume of the night. Me and my girlfriend dressed up as Rapunzel and Flynn Rider."

"The Halloween dance was kind of weird because there weren't many people there, but I enjoyed dancing with my friends. There was someone dressed up as Pitbull who was basically the life of the whole dance. I ended up dressing up as a cow and my friend dressed up as a zebra."

AIDAN MCGINTY '23

QUINTON ALLENSON '23

WHO

"I was with my parents on this trip and it was one of the most exciting moments."

WHAT

"My favorite part about the whole trip was Harry Potter world because they got a new ride."

WHERE

"I was at Universal Studios Theme Park in Orlando Florida."

WHEN

"I went there during fall break for my sixteenth birthday. It was a really cool thing to get to do and was tons of fun," Paityn Chapman '24 said.

one in a MINION

STUDENT TALKS ABOUT WHAT SHE DID OVER FALL BREAK

STUDENTS REFLECT ON HOMECOMING 2021

when in doubt, OVERDRESS

When students first transitioned to hybrid learning last year, nearly all extracurricular activities were canceled, including homecoming. Coming into the school year, the student body wasn't sure what events they would get back, or what regulations they would have to follow in order for them to stay. Castle View student government planned an outdoor dance to help prevent any breakouts, and so that masks would not be required.

"I liked that they adapted to [COVID-19] and moved it outside and I felt they did a good job of actually making it so there was a dance floor," Eli Thayer '23 said.

While some things may have been different this time around, students found a way to make this homecoming feel normal.

"I went with a group of my friends, and we took pictures at my house," Mallory Frohardt '24 said, "We had a lot of fun so we weren't really keeping track of the time, but we stayed a while."

Even with a ticket that was already purchased students had to wait outside in line before being able to enter the dance.

"I feel like they could make the actual process of getting into the dance easier," Thayer said. "I already had a ticket and my student ID and I still had to wait like 20 minutes just to get in."

"I felt they did a good job of actually making it so there was a dance floor." ELI THAYER '23