Delta High is back and better than ever, cheering and playing along to the high school's annual homecoming activities. "I think the most fun part was probably the outdoor volleyball thing. That was very fun. And then having everyone together; we haven't had that for a long time, since COVID-19 obviously," said Senior Brendon Baier. Last year Delta High's students and staff said goodbye to the yearly dance but this year it was safe to go back to the tradition.
