

STAND FOR THE PLEDGE

The team is standing for the pledge at State Volleyball which was held in Colorado Springs. They like to use this time to reflect on the game they are about to play while honoring the flag, too.

SAY CHEESE

Alamosa's starters smile in excitement as they are about to start their first home game. Juniors Avery Mobbly, Sydney Jackson, Charley Higham, and Mary Masias, and senior Malia Tuioti-Mariner all agree they are ready for the new season.

DOUBLE BLOCK

At the state volleyball tournament, juniors Charley Higham and Sydney Jackson go up for a double block attempt against their opponent. A double block is much more intimidating because the odds of the ball going over the net are much less likely.

TEAM COORDINATION

Throughout the past couple of years, the girls have tried their best to match knee pads and shoes. Here, it is obvious all of their knee pads and shoes are white along with the jerseys.

DYNAMIC DUO

Juniors Avery Mobbly and Charley Higham getting set on a serve receive in hopes of getting a perfect pass. When these two are back row together, every pass to the setter is perfect.

ALL THE SPOTLIGHT

Junior Avery Mobbly gets all the spotlight as she serves to the opposing team at the first home game against Pueblo County. Mobbly is known for her killer jump serve to ace the other team.

THEY SAY HARD WORK PAYS OFF

In order for each team to make it to the state tournament, they have to be regional champions which is exactly what AHS did. They beat Manitou Springs and Strasburg at Regionals to claim that regional championship title. Throughout the season their hard work was really shown at this point.
