

CHEERIN' FOR CHEER

Emma Hostetler '23 smiles through the heat during the football game against Northglenn Sept. 10. The game was at 4 p.m. with temperatures near 90 degrees. "Everyone got super burnt and everyone smelled superbad because of all the sweat," Hostetler said. photo by: m. evans

FLIPPIN FOR FANS

Jaidyn Shirley '24, does a round-off back-handspring full while tumbling for the crowd during the football game at Echo Park Stadium against Northglenn Sept. 10. The cheer team tumbled as the boys warmed up for the game. "I like to tumble because it is fun to try and learn new skills that I have never done before," Shirley said. photo by: m. evans

48-6
rock canyon vs northglenn sept. 10

POM-POMS UP

shouts the chants during a break in the football game Sept. 10. The team defeated Northglenn 48-6. "I love cheering at games, especially when there's a big crowd, because the energy is amazing," Koressel said. photo by: e. mcritt

SMILING FOR THE STANDS

Base, Shaya Lebauer '22 holds Leanne Maxam '25 during halftime of the game against Chaparral Sept. 2. Cheer performed in front of the crowd every home football game at Echo Park Stadium. "The energy and hype of the student section when we score and the boys crushing it creates a huge feeling for us all," Lebauer said. photo by: m. evans

THAT'S A SET

volleyball ended its season with 13 wins and 14 losses and also qualifying for state playoffs

DIGGIN IT

Gannon Figueroa '24 and Taylor Cary '22 play defense against Cherry Creek Sept. 27 at Cherry Creek HS. Despite playing against the state champs, the varsity team competed in three sets, losing in the third set 20-25. "I think we played really good, and we can definitely beat them next year," Figueroa said. photo by: r. waller

HIGH FIVES FOR ALL

Addie Waller '24 runs through the high five line before winning the Arapahoe game 3-1 Sept. 9 at Arapahoe HS. The team did high five lines before every game to cheer everyone on. "It hypes everyone up and brings people together before we play," Waller said. "To me it's very exciting and motivating." photo by: d. dowrak

DARE TO CELEBRATE

cheer, football, girls volleyball, boys tennis, and mountain biking start their seasons off on a high note

CHEERING LOUD AND CRAZY

Tanner Epp '23, James Stevens '24, and the football team shout as the team ties up the game against Chapparral Sept. 2. The game was sent to overtime and the team lost 30-33. "The energy was crazy on the sideline and I felt I was one of the loudest and craziest ones. I would put people on my shoulders and yell," Stevens said. photo by: m. evans

TRAIL-BLAZERS

Ryan Scherrer '23 bikes at the HRJC Snowmass race Sept. 25 in Aspen, CO. Scherrer biked two laps around the course and got seventh place in his JV group. "My favorite part is racing because of the whole event and it's very rewarding at the end," Scherrer said. photo by: n. friedel

the football team celebrates after going 6-6 for the season

EAT 'EM UP

Safety, Grant Robinson '23 intimidates the opposing team after a defensive stop Sept. 10. Canyon had just come off a tough loss against Chaparral, and wanted to come out and hit Northglenn hard with a win. "It was a rough start to the season, but when we started rolling, we were dangerous," Robinson said. photo by: m. evans

GRIDIRON GS

WHEN THE RAIN FALLS, WE DON'T

Quarterback Gavin Neira '24 celebrates after the team scored a game-tying touchdown against Chaparral Sept. 2 at Echo Park. The team lost to Chaparral in overtime 33-30. "During the game, I felt ecstatic of how crazy the game was even with the outcome," Neira said. "We fought back and never gave up." photo by: m. evans

GAME, SET, MATCH

Camden Maurer '23 practices his forehand swing Sept. 1 on the home courts. Maurer won 6 out of 10 matches this season. "I love to play tennis with the nice and supportive community," Maurer said. photo by: d. dowrak