THERE ARE GIANTS IN THE SKY

Senior Ben Jackson, playing Jack in the production of Into the Woods, performs the song "There are giants in the sky" after discovering all of the wondrous things that can be found up in the clouds.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

The theater students prepare for their production of Robin Hood by thoroughly studying and practicing their lines. Sophomore Shea Jordan makes sure that she is putting emotion and action into her performance while practicing her part in the play.

DO YOU HEAR THAT

While enacting her part as Cinderella in the production, senior Seanna Mackey listens to what the birds have to say, while the rest of the cast, senior Ben Jackson (playing Jack), senior Derek Rodriguez (playing the baker), and sophomore Rebecca Workman (playing Little Red Riding Hood), listen intently to the birds tweets.
