

A COMMUNITY UNITED

“I think the most valuable thing Audrey always told me is to always just reach out to people... If you ever want to tell someone you love them, you should just text them and tell them.” Madison Berg, senior

“Through Audrey and I’s friendship, I learned how to enjoy life. Whenever I was with Audrey, she would help me see things through a more joyful, colorful point of view and that really stuck with me.” Madelyn Tobler, senior

“Audrey taught me to love in a way that I never thought possible. We shared a bond so deep that I didn’t think you could find in a friend.. I am so lucky to have gotten to experience so much love in our friendship.” Ava Harding, senior

“Audrey taught me what true friendship really meant. No matter who, what, where or when, Audrey loved me unconditionally and never failed to show me that.” Paige Powell, junior

“Being friends with Colton has taught me to not take anyone for granted. He loved everyone and everyone loved him. He was genuinely himself; he didn’t have to put on a face to talk to certain people. I want to live like Colton did, because he lived to make the most of what he had.” Matthew Laughlin, senior

“Kindness goes a long way. Colton was kind to everyone... I aspire to be more like him.” Isaac Urrutia, senior

“I wish I could explain what my friendship with Colton has taught me... I learned that you must love unconditionally. To hug my friends, family, teachers and peers because any interaction could be your last. Colton taught me the definition of hard work... I love you; you will never be forgotten.” Grayson Peil, senior

“Colton taught me to work hard. Everything he did, he did it 100% and would go full out. Audrey taught me so much. She taught me love and how to forgive people. She never held a grudge on anyone.” Owen Clarke, senior

“Colton was the most hardworking and bright person. He was a positive person no matter what, he taught me and so many others how to work hard and he really could cheer up anyone.” Brooks Rodarte, senior
