

ELEVATE MAGAZINE

The Regis Jesuit community was invited to sign their names on the final beam of the new Science and Innovation Center and be a part of its history. The beam was later blessed and placed in position, furthering the progress of the big construction project.

Photo by Owen Weis '24