

showdown in photos

SHOWDOWN 2022 CAPTURED THROUGH THE LENS OF A CAMERA

The sophomore class comes together as a team to dominate Showdown this year. As events began, sophomore Kinsey Bratz cheered with her closest friends. She participated in tug-of-war and took the win for the sophomores. "It's so much fun being with all my friends and being so excited. The rivalry is so intense, which makes it so much better," Bratz said.

2. Peyton Rettmer holds a flag in her hands and focuses on the flag shuttle relay race. In the gym surrounded by friends and teachers, they cheered her on in the event. "Everyone was cheering and involved, and completely participating, as well as just being able to come together as a school," Rettmer said.

3. Seniors pump up the crowd for Showdown. Senior Will Miranda excites the crowd for Showdown 2022. The gym floods with students as Showdown begins. "I had a very positive and strong overall experience during Showdown. Coming from a Student Government perspective, it was very stressful leading up to the actual day but as soon as Showdown began I knew it was going to be great," Miranda said.

written by Katherine King and photos by Sophi Pinello