

Lawsuit Script

Shot	VO	Quote
Outside of auditorium and email from BVSD	On February 13th each grade level participated in a mandatory assembly, during school hours, set on teaching students their Title IX rights. The student presenter at the assembly, Minna Most, has spent a lot of time learning what students' Title IX rights are:
		Minna explaining what Title IX is.
	The Title IX presentation was the result of a lawsuit settlement between BVSD and two former Fairview students. The girl's alleged administration neglected to act on their reports regarding a former lacrosse player's acts of sexual misconduct towards multiple students.
	Kimberly Hult, attorney at Hutchinson Black and Cook said, quote: "We learned that a lot of staff members didn't have that information, didn't know how to report various claims, or didn't feel like they had an effective way to report it."
	With the lawsuit officially settling, BVSD is now taking new measures in the hopes it will improve their school's social environment for students.

cc	"BVSD agreed to provide training and information to high school students on consent, sexual assault, sexual harassment, and Title IX remedies at all the high schools during school hours." -- And it was really important to us that it take place during school hours"
	The district has been working with the student advisory board, who has been working alongside administration's Title IX advisor, Elizabeth Francis, on making better programs to help students advocate for themselves.
		Clip from Elizabeth
	A new support plan called the Supportive Measures Menu is currently being finalised.
Through the process of	The Supportive Measure's Menu is a list of options to help students through the process of reporting and dealing with sexual assault.	Clip from Elizabeth

-Change question	Both Minna Most and Elizabeth Francis agree that if students want to see changes made in their social environments they must take the necessary actions themselves.
		End with Minna's encouragement to report no matter what
	From KYOT this is Elijah and Gail	