

NEW HAIRSTYLES

Every year new trends become all the rage. 2022 was no different with new clothing styles, cars and even music taste. One of the most popular new things were the new hairstyles, particularly the curtain bangs and mullets. Well, new for this decade at least. Though both were popular in the 20th century, the mullet dating even before that, both had exploded in popularity recently, and many Eaton Reds wear them loudly and proudly.

NEW SESSIONS

For the past few years, multiple less conventional games became more and more popular. One of these games which had one of the biggest boosts would be the table-top RPG Dungeons & Dragons. While many were introduced to the show through Stranger Things, there was a certain group that was ahead of the curb. "My group started playing last year and we do it like every week," said Cyrus Vanbriggles (10). Every week they get together and play the game together, and they're showing no signs of stopping any time soon.

TO FIGHT OR NOT TO FIGHT Cyrus Vanbriggles (10) rolls a dice to perform an attack as Remi Grasmick (10) sits in anticipation.
NAT 20 The d20, the most infamous symbol of Dungeons & Dragons, is rolled and lands on a natural 20.
ROLL OF THE DICE Mylee Cross (10) and Cyrus Vanbriggles watch as a dice rolls across the table.
THE CREATION OF TREE CREAK Sophomores Cyrus Vanbriggles and Remi Grasmick reach out to each other, acting out a critical scene in the campaign where their characters Tree Creak and Gerald find each other.
NEGOTIATIONS Mylee Cross and Cyrus Vanbriggles bargain with an NPC in a market place.

NEW SCHOOL, NEW LOOKS

As Halloween arrived for its 2022 season, students and teachers alike dressed up for the ghoulish holiday. From a mad scientist to a group of maids, Eaton High School showed off their costume chops. "Halloween is my favorite thing," Teylar Strong said, "it's so much fun to dress up as whatever you want."

MATCH MAID IN HEAVEN Coordinating with one another to bring to life a comical collaboration, juniors Isaac Garcia Armas, Tyler Roth, and Ruben Montes Lopez all dress up as maids for the 31st of October. "We thought it was really funny," said Roth when asked why they had decided on maid costumes. Their costumes had gotten more than one laugh throughout the day.

FAVORITE HORROR MOVIE

LANFEAR VALLEJOS (10)
"My favorite horror movie is The Boy. It shows the problem with the reality of neglect and what it can do to you and others."

ADIN JOHNSON (11)
"American Psycho because Patrick Bateman is a very creative killer."

DHARMA PERKINS (10)
"My favorite horror movie would have to be Seed of Chucky, it's so funny, but it's still considered to be a horror movie."

RYANN WENCK (10)
"My favorite horror movie is the new movie Smile. I watch a lot of horror movies and barely any scare me, but this movie left me paranoid for days."

JAXON ROBSON (9)
"My favorite is Black Phone because it is intertwined."

JOCELYN COULOMBE (11)
"I would have to say I am the pretty thing that lives in this house and the reason why I like it is because- it's kind of like a psychological thriller."
