

3. CLASS COMPETITION Krisayda Flores, 12, Jack Davis, 12, Katie Frost, 11, and Evan Carson, 11, compete in Hungry Hippos, an annual pep rally game. 4. FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT! Malia Foster, 11, performs Fight Song along with her fellow band mates to get Lancer Nation fired up on the first day of school.

1. PUMPED UP Leonides Ruvalcaba, 12, Micah Langnor, 12, Rio Townsend, 12, Savanna Gasaway, 12, Brooklyn Mann, 12, and Abree Gibbens, 12, show off their senior pride through their overalls and confetti cannons. 2. FRESHMEN'S EXPLODING SPIRIT Emma Mala, 9, Madelyn Orr, 9, Taio Taylor, 9, Genesis Burton, 9, Emori Urdita, 9, and Audrey Sahn, 9, leading the freshmen class in all of Liberty's cheers.

Q: What is your favorite thing about pep rallies?

A: My favorite part of pep rallies is, it's a great way for the student body to get in one big room, and it produces good energy for Lancer Nation."

Ava Lee, 12

IT'S A TRADITION
all eyes on them

Hailey White, 12

Liberty's outstanding dancers have carried the tradition of dancing at our pep rallies for several years. They put the crowd in awe with their grace and skill. Some could say, their performances are the highlight of our assemblies. They perform in unison and always put in the work for each dance. Our pep rallies would not be the same without their performances. Hailey White, 12, shows off her skills mid dance-routine.

LET'S GO BANANAS

THE LIVELINESS THROUGHOUT LANCER NATION SHINES IN OUR PEP RALLIES

content & page design by: Alex Erchanan

Pep rallies have always been one of the best ways to bring Liberty High School together. From beginning to end, this event is always filled with laughter and smiles. Screaming the chants, friendly competitions, and outstanding performances could not be possible without teamwork. These events are packed with spirit, and the seniors bring the heat with their overalls. No one does it better than Liberty. Every student here could agree that our pep rallies are the perfect way to kick off the school year, or to simply bring us together as a student body. Dayna Smith, 10, says "When we are doing the chants I feel like it really brings all the classes together as one even when we are competing. It makes everyone hyped and full of energy." Teacher involvement during pep rallies adds the perfect amount of support and excitement that our student body loves to receive from our awesome staff. Our pep rallies bring out the partnership, connection, unity, and liveliness that makes Liberty so unique. The tradition of seniors wearing their overalls, the popping of confetti cannons from our seniors, our staff involvement, and the rumbling through the floor from our chants is something that no duration of time could change, because this is...

LANCER NATION!

SIR Cal & his comrades

JOUSTING FOR SPIRIT

Sir Cal makes an appearance at all of our pep rallies, and it wouldn't be the same without him. Lancer Nation pride is at an all time high, but Sir Cal does it best. We may never know who wears the suit but we know Sir Cal will always be there.

1. JUMPING FOR JOY Brooklyn Rinard, 12, Ava Lee, 12, Ryligh Price, 12, and Sarah Johnston, 12, chant alongside Sir Cal during our first pep rally of the year.

