

helping the COMMUNITY

by E. Segura, S. Sims, B. Unruh

one step at a time

Students went to many places around the Douglas County School District to help the community. They did tasks for many people on this day and making people feel good in their community.

1. Helping with math, students were at Saddle Ranch Elementary school and helped kids with their school work. 2. Staining new chairs, students in Jed Palmer's, staff, enrichment started building chairs and staining them. "We had to build them, then we went to the outdoor classroom, and started to stain the chairs." Everett Segura, 08, said. 3. To paint positive messages, Kelly Brabant's enrichment class went to Saddle Ranch Elementary School. "I was painting rocks with inspirational messages. I thought it was cool and fun and the kids could look at them and remember what they are" Kella Kasischke, 08, said. 4. Reading with friends, students in Melissa Mottinger, staff, enrichment read to students at Saddle Ranch elementary. "I got the chance to read with a kindergarten student. She was amazing! I read one picture book, and then got to read the first few pages of a Frozen book. All I wanted for community service day was to read with kids. I was so excited when I heard about it! I loved it!" Asha Somuri, 07, said.

“ Helping kids with math always makes me smile and shows us how far we have come. ”

FUN in the fall

Fall break means trips and travel with family and friends. Beaches or cabins, students went to many different places during break.

“Over fall break me and my family went up to a cabin in Colorado Springs”

-Ashlyn Brunow, 08

“I was looking at the beach and standing in the sand and the sun was setting in Mexico.”

-Brady Cerritelli, 07

“My favorite part of fall break was going to different places in the USA and hanging out with my family.”

-Samantha Morley, 08

“ I was on a hike in Glenwood Springs and there was a broken wagon on the side of the trail.”

-Dailyn Chavez, 08

you said

“My favorite part of the dance was being with my friends, unlike last year. My favorite part of my costume was the dress.”

Makayla Rhodes, 08

“I had an amazing time at the Halloween dance. My favorite part was when everyone danced to one song in sync like the shuffle.”

Ryan Dahlstrom, 07

“I like raising money for the school, working at the concessions and setting up. my favorite part about running concessions was giving people the stuff they want.”

Evelyn Baum, 07

“It was a fun place to hang out with friends and the decorations were cool, and the dancing was also fun.”
