

Page By: Elleca Cresmen and Carly Dawson

Game Club

Front Row: Alex Kruger, Jackson Nannestad, Jayce Dunlap, Bailey Castro, Meliara Herringshaw, Jadon Dunlap, Row 2 Kyle Wheeler, Garrett Ottonello, Zoe Mussom, Isabella Carver, John Dixon, Nathan Crouch, River Flanagan,
 Row 3 Evan Jensen, Nathan Kelley, Samuel Ruppel, Justis Hayes, Jackson Dickerman

Lazarus Flamm (8) is in Game Club. "It's pretty fun, we get to have a good time with Mr. Pace, my other peers, and a good experience all around" Nathan Kelley (8) Likes when they play games and have chats with Mr. Pace. "I also like hanging out with friends after school."

Battle of the Books

Front Row: Simona Balentova, Kristin Ruppel, Briana Barron, Sara O'Brien, Emily Scarberry
 Row 2: Jack Byrd, Alexander Long, Charlea Stamps, Abraham Ruffell, Meliara Herringshaw, Bailey Castro, Caitlyn Alborghetti, Grayce Dutenhoeffer, Hazel Chaikin

Battle of the books is a really fun competitive club with a group of kids that love to read. Caitlyn Alborghetti says "I like reading. I think its really fun to come together with our friends and read."

Student Council

Abraham Ruffell (7) is a student who enjoys to lead to he decided to join Student Council here at Castle Rock Middle School. Your Student Council helps "with party and some of the designing" states Abraham. Meghan Breitenstein (8) is the president of the student council. "I think it is really fun and a great opportunity to experience new things."

Front Row: Sofia Foss, Kate Stacey, Meghan Breitenstein, Cooper Rodin
 Row 2: Sophie Clark, Emery Fruchtl, Kahlan Rentz, Carly Dawson, Abraham Ruffell
 Row 3: Noelani Felipe, Selah Williams

National Junior Honor Society

Hayden Ansel (8) is a part of NJHS, her role is the Community Service Chair. "In this role, I mainly work alongside the president in leading this club." Hayden says. Another job that she has as the Community Service Chair is organizing, planning and directing all services they do for the community. "Through this position, I have grown to become a more social and less independent person," she says. Hayden also has been more involved this year with the school and her community.

Thomas Giani (8) is the NJHS President. "I run the meetings and tell people what they can do to earn service hours." Thomas said. He gets to plan things that we do to help the community. "You get to earn an understanding of the world around you." He says.

Front Row: Asma Boudid, Taegan Wright, Nicole Peckham, Ava Clement, Lucy Kannenberg, Trystan Wright, Layla Wood, Caroline Mello, Hazel Chaikin, Brooke Herzog, Anastyn Kaufman
 Row 2: Samantha Niehus, Kenna Delgado, Lucy Bradley, Sophia Formento, Juliet Schulz, Peyton Milstein, Lukas Wendell, Samantha Draper, Brisa Dissel, Lily Adams, Brynlee MacFarlane, Klara Dobosz, Rebecca Peters, Anna Elick
 Row 3: Taylor Aragon, Annika Lundmark, Katherine Husum, Lila Ku, Lily Heisser, Gabriela McCrea, Olivia Hult, Hayden Ansel, Jaymee Vesque, Collin Cresmen, Chase Dowis, Thomas Giani, Jackson Nannestad
 Photo By: Elleca Cresmen

Brody Cagle (7) works as the costume designer for "Star Stars." "I designed all of the aliens costumes in scene two." He says. He likes to design the individual characters, it was fun challenge for him to take on.

Drama Club

Kenleigh Hancock (8) is the assistant director of the play "Star Stars". One thing she loves about being involved in the play is that they do things that have an outcome. "You can see that people enjoy it and how it progresses. The beginning, where it's chaos, and the end where you actually have something to present to people." She once said. Just how much improvement you can see in such a short period of time that they have to work on the play. Along with being the head of tech crew, she tells everyone what to do and give everyone jobs. "My favorite part about being the assistant director is just being able to see every aspect of building the play." Kenleigh says.

Page submitted with preflight issues: Text Across Gutter, Image Not Filling Frame