

IN FULL SWING

boys golf plays in for school tournament

GRASS IS ALWAYS GREENE

Following through on his first swing, Gavin Greene '25 competes in a tournament against multiple schools at Kennedy Golf Course, Sep. 8. The team was able to place second amongst the 4 other teams competing. "I was hitting my drive on the first hole at Kennedy, my favorite part of golf is the fact that it is more of a competition with yourself and the course than it is with you and other people," Green said.

photo by: i. orner

HOLE IN ONE

Jake Branish '25 makes his way down to the green at Kennedy Golf Course after taking his first swing, Sept. 8. This was one of the last tournaments played during their two month season. "I joined the golf team because I enjoy playing with my family, and it was a good opportunity to play more and have fun," said Branish.

photo by: i. orner

37

strokes shot 37 by Calvin Stotler at south suburban golf course Aug. 24

PEP'IN YOUR STEP

varsity poms dances with the student section at a home football game

MAKE SOME NOISE

Senior poms captain Dani Zappavigna dances on the sidelines at a home game against Denver East Sept. 9. The team had 10 routines that they rotated through during the game. "My favorite tradition is during the end of the third quarter at football games when we perform 'Cotton Eye Joe,'" Zappavigna said.

photo by: a. nandy

POWER PERFORMANCE

At halftime, Arianna Levy '23 performs down on the field during halftime against Denver East Sept. 9. Varsity poms performed at every home football game to help bring the crowd together. "Being a senior, I enjoy soaking up these last moments that I won't ever have again," Levy said.

photo by: a. nandy

JAGUARS HUNT AT NIGHT

varsity football defeats denver east 37-15

SORRY, I'VE GOT TO RUN

program sweep against dohererty

"you really have to persevere through it because its definetly hot and difficult but if you persevere you will be okay."

HEATED COMPETITION

Paige Behrens '23 runs down the trail in the blistering heat at the Arapahoe Cross Country Meet, Sept. 17. It was Behrens first year on the team as an upperclassman. "Our coach used glitter in high school when she ran cross country. So she brought the glitter for us so that we could use that and kind of follow in her footsteps," said Behrens.

photo by: a. walsh

DOWN TO THE WIRE

Attempting to run past her opponent, Mia Alaimo '26 pushes down the last straight of the course. The Girls Varsity Cross Country team finished in first place in the Rock Canyon Runners Roost. "I think the race was difficult but compared to the other schools we did well," Alaimo said.

photo by: s. thompson

UPHILL BATTLE

Elizabeth Daniels '24 strides towards the finish line at a home cross country meet on Sept. 23. The entire cross country program finished first at the event they held. "This race is one of our most difficult courses that we run, with a lot more inclines and declines compared to other courses," Daniels said.

photo by: s. thompson

STARTING OFF STRONG

Juniors Tate Jenson, Hudson Schade, and Justin Laity race to be at the front of the pack at the Rock Canyon Runners Roost hosted at the school field, Sept. 23. Annually the cross country program hosts schools nearby for a 3.5 mile race around the uneven terrain. "My time was around 17 minutes, which was pretty good," Jenson said.

photo by: s. thompson

FIRST DOWNS TO TOUCH-DOWNS

Dean Chisolm '23 runs down the field past a Denver East defender at EchoPark Stadium Sept. 15. The third game of the season closed with a 37-15 win that continued the teams 3-0 record. "When I caught the ball I wasn't thinking much, I just knew I had a responsibility to do my job to help us win," Chisolm said.

TAKE A KNEE

Luke Wennogle '23 and Will Rosemeyer '24 kneel down on the field after defeating Chaparral at home Sept. 15. The team gathered on the field after winning 35-6 to review plays, and summarize the game.

LINE 'EM UP

Adonis Culter '23 sets a offensive stance against the defensive line of Denver East Sept. 15, at Echo Park Stadium. After a contemptuous loss against Denver East last year, the Jaguars came out victorious, winning 37-15. "I was just thinking about my next move to get past the lineman," Culter said.

17 total athletes in co-op gymnastics

5 high schools participate on the team: VCHS, TRHS, MVHS, RCHS, HRHS

8 meets in the gymnastics season

RACK-ET UP

varsity tennis plays in their ninth game of the season against thunder ridge

Captain Will Strabel '24 prepares to strike back against Thunder-Ridge opponent at home Sept. 13. The varsity tennis team ended in a defeat with a score of 5-2. "I played well against thunder ridge. Being a captain means to me is respecting your team. I enjoyed playing tennis in high school because I made new friends and just enjoyed playing the game," Strabel said.

photo by: j. horan

SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES
SPREAD BY: S.THOMPSON AND A.JAEGER