MOYA GOODIEL.

by Abigail Planstiel

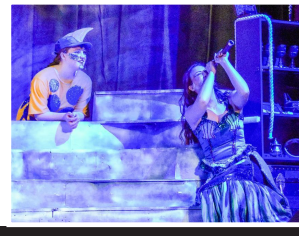

A SOPHOMORE STARS IN THE SPRING MUSICAL AS ARIEL

As only a sophomore, Moya Goodiel was cast as the lead of Ariel in the spring musical, "The Little Mermaid." She shared her experience of playing the lead as a sophomore. "When the cast list came out, I thought my phone had formatted it wrong, and I was like, 'My name is in the wrong spot, oops,' but then my friends called me like, 'Moya, oh my gosh, I am so proud of you.' I was like, 'this is not real.' I WAS JUST HOPING THAT I WOULD GET A MERSISTER OR SOMETHING A LITTLE MORE THAN ENSEMBLE, BUT IT SAID MOYA NEXT TO ARIEL."

Goodiel had acting experience before high school, participating in in Kid's Stage in Elementary School and in her middle school's musicals. Goodiel was also a part of the ensemble in last year's production of Footloose. "THERE IS A LOT MORE PRODUCTION THAT'S GOING INTO IT, AND A LOT MORE FOCUS ON DANCES AND SINGING. IT'S WAY MORE NITPICKY WORK REGARDING THE ACTING AND BLOCKING OF IT. IT'S DEFINITELY A LOT MORE IN DEPTH."

Playing the lead brought new challenges. "Ariel is definitely an interesting character because she thinks a lot and everything just happens to her. She makes a decision, and everything else just happens to her, so it's definitely an interesting character to play. IT'S BEEN A LOT OF FUN TO WORK ON IT WITH EVERYBODY AND TO WORK HARD AT IT," Goodiel said.
