

FRESHMEN ARE IN THE HOUSE!

AN INSIDE LOOK

Entering into the gym for the first time, many freshmen started a new chapter in their life after graduating from middle school. They met with their link leaders, who helped them with the transition into becoming high schoolers. Throughout the day, Link leaders showed them the ropes by doing group activities to help overcome obstacles. While some may have been afraid of meeting new kids, Jackson Richardson was “afraid of being shoved into a locker, even though that only happens in movies.”

1. Freshman class of 2026.
2. Savior Juarez, Fr., getting to know some of his new classmates.
3. Aimee Wright, Sr., and Evelyn Kelley, Jr., leading the crowd.
4. Zaid Momani, Jr., getting to know the freshman class.
5. Freshmen Lilly Lunday and Isabella Rivera overcoming first day challenges.

Gabe Davenport

"It was very welcoming and open, the activities we did were very helpful to get to know the school and where I'm going to be spending most of my days the next four years."

IN THEIR WORDS...

Nathanael Manier

"On the first day of Freshman year I felt welcomed and accepted because of all the Link leaders' positivity."

1. The freshmen about to start their first activity.
2. Student Council teaching the freshmen some Coronado chants.
3. Lillian Manier, Jr., helping some freshmen ease into their first day.
4. Achia Laaloui, Fr., scooting to the finish line.
5. Brady Guimond, Fr., entering the gym ready for his first day of high school.