privileges revoked | For the first few weeks of school, 8th graders were able to eat outside. However, this option was quickly taken away due to leaving trash scattered about. Many 8th graders believe that it is better to sit outdoors. "It's just a way to be outside with your friends. It's not so cramped," mentioned Dawson Smith. "We deserve more freedom, like the high schoolers," Carson Hausmann stated.

a sense of spirit | In order to get ready for the cross country season, some athletes trained with the high school team over the summer. "My favorite part was the team spirit. There was just a sense of belonging and welcoming and it was really fun," Nathan Harding said.

cool to carpool | Some of the athletes rode to training together. Cadence Fredricey, Riley Kaffine, and their younger siblings decided to carpool, as they both participated in summer training. "It was fun to hang out with Riley each morning before going to practice," Cadence exclaimed.

reasons to run | Starting a new sport at the beginning of the school year can be overwhelming. A few students, including Tate Stadler, Nyla DeLalio, and Sofia DeLalio, decided to prepare over the summer. "I wanted some extra practice before we started the season," Nyla explained. "I was just really into cross country and I had a lot of free time this summer," Sofia stated.

fun in florida | Over the summer, Lorelai Hill went to Florida. She stayed for a week and visited both Universal Studios and the Islands of Adventure. Lorelai actually liked Florida more than Colorado. "The driving there is so much better," Lorelai commented.

a summer of travel | During the break, Judah Wilson traveled all over the world. He stated, "I liked going to the Eiffel Tower, it was super fun! Also, the Louvre Museum, seeing the Mona Lisa, it was really interesting." Judah's favorite place of all was Barcelona. "It was party time all the time," he exclaimed.

exciting experiences | North Carolina was the place to be this summer for Hannah Douglas. "My favorite part was getting to see different parts of the country and spending time with my family. The scenery was different everywhere we went. It was a lot hotter and we got to spend a lot of time at the ocean," Hannah recalled.
