

Keep your eyes on me. Comforting 10 year old Leah, Kaylee Gagnon '23 embraces her little sister as she shaves her head during the annual Bald 4 Bucks assembly. For the Gagnon family, cancer hits close to home which made this moment even more special. "Leah was so dedicated to doing it for other people that she was not worried about her self-image. She's the most giving person I've ever met and she cares so much for other people," said Gagnon. photo by: devyn miranda
