

Do you feel like you know us from somewhere? Maybe because we are the school that hosted the Parker Youth Perceptions of Police event. Maybe because we are the school that had two legendary theater performances of Dracula and Mamma Mia. Maybe because we are the origin school of Iris Pixler, 12, a Boettcher Scholarship Finalist, and Dawson Kern, 12, a finalist for the National Merit Scholarship.

But we are only all these things because of teachers like Ms. Katie Glide, the theater teacher, and Ms. Anastasia Harrison, AP Lit teacher. The community that we have as academics,

"I really like to try out new things and I loved being able to try a new hobby-photography."

Molly Stewart, 11

1. Picture Perfect Molly Stewart, 11, takes photos at a soccer game, "I am really interested in photography, so it was fun getting to try it out," Stewart said. photo by addie solomon
2. Sketch It Out Adding the finishing touches, Lily Grabau, 9, sketches her project. photo by addie solomon
4. Full Focus Carter Miller, 11, finishes planning out his jewelry project. photo by addie solomon

3. Karaoke Time Caleb Sanders, 12, performs with man poms during the Wish Week Assembly. "It's a great feeling to get involved with the school for a good cause," Sanders said. photo by anastasia harrison

Because we are students