THIS IS US

Euclid students are known for many things such as having fun, being creative, working hard and being kind. Euclid is place of unique individuals with a variety of backgrounds and interests. From art, robotics, and reading to playing sports, volunteering and adventuring outdoors students express their singularity. But we all have one thing in common: being Falcons.

Story by Owen Stricker and Ayleen Griffith

FROM MIND TO... TAPE? Adding the final touches to his group's newest class art project, Ian Preskins, 08, finishes the masterpiece he and his group have been working on in art. His groups challenge was to construct a one or two point perspective art piece out of tape. Photo by Savina Aguilera
