

SETTING THE MOOD.

The varsity volleyball team gathers together to celebrate winning a hard rally. Jade Tenorio (12) stated, "My favorite thing about volleyball is the community and the relationships!" photo by vy phan

We bled purple and gold at every win and every loss. We were talkative and studious. We spent our off periods in the library and our weekends in the mountains, on the tennis courts, on the soccer fields, and at our jobs. We were consumed by all the latest trends and rejected the status quo. We were ourselves; totally unique, totally lions.

This year, we told all the stories- week by week and season by season. We went under the stairs, behind the curtains, and outside the margins to get the entire picture. We looked in every direction and we told it

FROM ALL ANGLES.

238

ON THAT NOTE. Ben Ryan (12) performs with great concentration while playing with his peers. "The thing I love most about band is the community. Everyone is so inclusive and if you feel left out people in the performing arts are very welcoming," claimed Ryan. photo by noura ali abid

Closing 239