1. Last Man Mr. Legend, Caleb Sanders, 12, sits defeated after losing a race to the wish kid on Feb. 10. "Wish Week is a time where the whole school comes together and there was really good energy," Sanders said. photo by addie solomon 2. Final Walk Katie Ketter, 11, leads fellow manager Catherine Louden, 12, down the field during Senior Night for varsity football. "Me and Catherine are really close, so it felt great being able to celebrate her," Ketter said. photo by addie solomon 3. Big Pitch Pitcher Cameron Ponich, 12, throws the ball during the Castle View game on Sept. 27. "Everyone on the team is really close so we all have great chemistry during games," Ponich said. photo by addie solomon 4. Getting Creative Myles Lindstrom, 10, adds the final touches to his project in jewelry. "My favorite project was making a ring because you got to be creative with it," Lindstrom said. photo by addie solomon 5. Ready to Shoot Varsity player Kale Sparks, 10, gets ready to make a free throw during the game against Chatfield on Dec. 20 at Ball Arena. "I really appreciate the opportunity to play where so many of my idols have," Sparks said. photo by addie solomon 6. Collecting Yards Celebrating a big play against Valor on Nov. 11, Nate Sandy, 11, throws his hands in the air to celebrate. "A lot of people placed really low expectations on us, but we worked hard and proved them wrong," Sandy said. photo by addie solomon 7. Play the Music Abigail Curtis, 12, receives a medal in celebration of Band Senior Night on Oct. 7. After putting on a performance, band members walked across the field during half time. photo by addie solomon
