

Legend High School.
Do you feel like you've heard that somewhere?

Maybe because we are the marching band who performed at Disney World. Maybe because we are the school that raised $150,049.38 for our wish kid.
That's right, One hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Maybe because we are the football team that Chap was convinced they could beat this year. They didn't. For the fifth year in a row.

Do you think you know who we are? Maybe it's because we are the school whose poms team took fifth place at the NDA national championship. That's the highest we've ever placed. Maybe it's because we are the school that Derrick White attended and who inducted him into our hall of fame.
You're not wrong. We are.

1. Say Cheese Celebrating her last high school homecoming game, Jaz Medel, 12, takes a photo with her friends. "It was great to finally be able to sit in the front of the stands after four years of waiting to be a senior," Medel said, *photo by

Up Seth Whitehead, 11, celebrates after making a crucial freethrow in the game against Regis Jesuit on Feb 17. "It was a really tough game, but we were able to fight through it," Whitehead said, *photo by addie Stickley, 11, poses with her lane during practice on Jan 22. "The whole team, but especially our lane, is really close and has such a good bond," Stickley said, photo by addie solomon
