TREND SETTER

Alex Kuta '25 has made his mark on Delta High School not only socially but also by his school spirit. Kuta is one of the Delta High School mascots, while he also owns two separate clothing brands, Fair Enough Apparel and Smelling Flowers. He advertises these sweatshirts on his Instagram accounts and wears the clothing to encourage his friends and other students to order them. "I decided to do this because it seemed like something fun to do and because I like art and clothes," said Kuta. "

SMELLING FLOWERS

"I came up with the name 'Fair Enough' because a friend told me that I say fair enough a lot," said Kuta. "Smelling Flowers was just because I really like flowers." Kuta's father is his biggest inspiration for his artwork. "My father inspired me; from whenever I was a little kid he's been into doing art." Kuta's father is actually an art teacher at Paonia Elementary School. "He's always been there and is supportive of all the stuff I do," said Kuta

Kuta tag teams the Panther mascot at games and assemblies. "The suits are kind of uncomfortable though because it gets hot and you can't see very well out of the head and we have to hold it up," said Kuta, "They're not near as uncomfortable as people make them seem." Kuta started mascoting this year, and he plans to continue doing it until he graduates. "It sucks because we literally can't do anything with our arms. It is just constant holding the head up and then neck pain after."
