Picking up the Brush

Adaline Ohara is a painter. It all started five years ago, when Adaline was home-schooled. She was very inspired by the nature around her and she decided to start painting. Social media also had an influence on her motivation to start painting. Seeing other's art online made her want to start painting some of her own pieces. Even in 2023 Adaline still loves to paint after doing it for almost five years.

KEEPING BUSY

DRIBBLE, DRIBBLE, SHOOT! Annika Lunmark started playing basketball when she was in 4th grade. Since then, she has continued to play and joined her 7th and 8th grade teams at CRMS. Annika is eager to say that she also is hoping to keep playing basketball next year and through High School. Additionally, she is on the honor roll and is doing community service hours with the Denver Rescue Mission and food banks, all of which sure keeps her busy.

1. SHOWING OUR PRIDE. Eighth graders cheer together representing their pod.

2. HOW WE SEE. Taegan Wright and Caitlyn Morling experiment to understand how light passes through the eye.

3. BEING TOGETHER. Lucas Armstrong and Tristen Keller take a moment out of gym class to show off their smile together.
