

DUNK AND GO NUTS

It was an intense game according to the scoreboards and Canyon City was only down by a few points. With only 1 minute remaining in the game, Canyon City and Coronado were neck and neck. That is until Realiti Smith, Jr., took a leap of faith, jumped as high as he could and dunked right on one of the varsity members of Canon City.

Realiti recounted, "I yelled for the ball and in the next two seconds Rodney Delgado, Jr., shot the ball straight to me. Next thing I knew, everything went silent and all I could hear was the pumping of my heart."

The crowd went wild and couldn't believe what they had just witnessed.

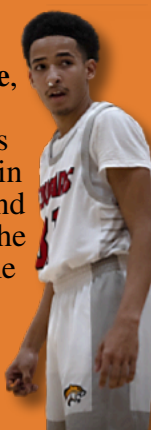

Not only did the Coronado boys go home with a victory, they also went home with a memory they would never forget.

Seth Enoch, Jr.,
"My favorite part of basketball is the complexity of it."

Omar DuBose,

So.,
"My goal this season is to win more games and connect with the team and come together."

Jalyn Jarboe, So.,
"The chemistry of the team has made this season my favorite."

Dylan Dooyema, Jr.,
"Brotherhood is what makes this team so special. We have had to deal with a lot of difficult things, but we have come out stronger and that will be a key factor for success."
