

GO...GO...GO!

NO PLACE LIKE HOME. Gabriel Hodges (8th) stands alongside his teammates as they get ready to play flag football against a neighboring school for a home game.

4. POP IT! Nathaniel Brogan (8th) pulls rubber bands around a pumpkin to see how many rubber bands it takes to make it pop.

GAME ON

PUT YOUR GAME FACE ON. Harper Laos (7th) goes up to the front of the court, getting ready to play hard.

7. TRAVELING TOGETHER. All band, choir and world music students head out to watch a play at a CVHS.

THROUGH OTHERS EYES STUDENT LIVES

Breckyn Cates (7) was on A team in volleyball. She has only been playing since 2021, and has made it to the A team! Breckyn says, "My friends, like when I started like not playing for the school, my friends just kinda, like asked me to play so I was like sure." Even though she is has made it so far, that doesn't mean her journey didn't have any challenges. Like everyone, she had to slowly learn, and has pushed herself to get better. Now, here she is on A team still going strong and she is growing her skills more and more every single day.

- 1. GAME ON. Griffin Taylor (8) and Jackson Nannestad (8) hustle to defend the ball.
- 2. FOCUSING ON YOUR WELL-BEING. Sophie Rhee (7) believes that working hard, and feeling her best-self is the most effective way to build up and accomplish goals. With that, she is writing down her future goals to attain in the third quarter. Sophie states that she has high hopes for the following year.
- 3. FRIENDS FOREVER. Corey Price (8) and Boden Seymour (8) embrace each other, while holding a soda bottle.
- 5. PLAY HARD, WIN EASY! Samuel Erickson Samuel successfully earns the team a point against the opposing team.
- 6. ALWAYS ON YOUR TOES. Stella Hoepner (7) heads for the ball, hitting it over the net. Earning her team a point.
- 8. GASP! O'Riley McLaughlen (8) gasps at the board game, watching his partner play.

The one and only

TRYING NEW THINGS. BellaRay Fiske (7) was a flag football player on the B team. Being the only girl on her team, she faced some challenges. Growing up, she was used to being surrounded by boys, so it was a familiar environment with her team. Bella says "I think I played pretty well, and won a lot of games, one being 90-12." She made tons of new friends, and wants to join again next year.

