

ATHLETICS

By Landen Thurber

The spring sports season begins surrounded by snow and enduring the unpredictable mountain weather. Almost all the teams practice outside in the dark, under the lights with temperatures below freezing, or use the golf simulator or indoor courts. From the fields to the diamond, these athletes bring their all to AHS athletics.

