

DRESS THE PART

Day 3

LIGHT UP THE NIGHT

The hallways lit up with neon on Wednesday as students wore the brightest clothes in their closets. From socks to glasses, students were decked out head to toe

Day 4

MOVIE MADNESS

Day 4 asked students to dress up as their favorite space movie; Sophomores Jayden Mizokami and Kiko Ruybal wore jerseys to elude to the movie "Space Jam".

PIECE BY PIECE

HAT

Classic for any true cowboy

BUTTON UP

Cutting the sleeves off adds to the redneck flare

JORTS

An iconic fashion statement, and a great way ruin a pair of jeans.

BOOTS

The final touch to tie together any western style.

SENIOR SOAKING

Students go crazy for spirit week games; Sophomores Jayden Mizokami and Michael Motz dump the entire bin of ice water onto Senior Abram Bowden.

SLIDIN' TO THE WIN

The Homecoming assembly always brings out a competitive spark in students. Senior Kasey Jones anchors the slip 'n slide relay to secure the win for his class.

Staff Spirit

Q: WHY DO YOU DRESS UP FOR SPIRIT DAYS?

"It is always fun to be a kid once in awhile. Also, I do not have to put on my work clothes"
- Mrs. McQuitty

Q: WHY DO YOU DRESS UP FOR SPIRIT DAYS?

"To encourage other students and staff to show pride in their school by participating."
- Mrs. Henderson
