Covered in color: Celebrating at the finish line of the 'Run with Rocky' Color Run, Eduardo 'Mely' Gonzalez Ramirez '25 and his fellow cross country teammates engage in a color battle. Gonzalez Ramirez enjoys running in his free time, but felt that the first annual color run, which supported Bald 4 Bucks, was an excellent way to get involved in the school community. "We all had fun supporting a really good cause, and running with friends makes it a whole lot better," said Gonzalez Ramirez. photo by: elizabeth schechner
