

COMPETE FOR A SEAT

Patrick Smith '24 attempts to sit on the same chair as Andrew Abner '25 during musical chairs in the gym Jan. 20. The seniors won musical chairs with juniors in second. "I felt that the seniors winning was rigged and the sophomores should have won," Abner said.
photo by: a. gustafson

GOING ONCE, GOING TWICE...PIED

Tyler Conybear '23 laughs after pieing Reid Cutone '26 in the face at the class competition assembly in the gym Jan. 20. Similar to an auction, grades bid on who would get pied and the lowest bidder lost.
photo by: c. yeater

LYING ON THE COLD, HARD GROUND

Andrew Southhall '24 and Addie Vail '23 lay on the floor of the gym during a game of musical chairs at the annual class competition assembly Jan. 20. Students fell down, sat on each other and grabbed chairs as strategies to win.
photo by: a. gustafson

WHO CHAIRS?

Ava Blanco '24 battles Addie Vail '23 for a chair during the class competition assembly in the gym Jan. 20. The theme of the assembly was "sho-ya-glo", so students wore neon shirts purchased for five dollars each. "My strategy in musical chairs was to just try and stay closest to a chair because it started to get a bit more aggressive toward the end," Blanco said.
photo by: c. yeater

HIPS DON'T LIE

Emmett Dunham '25 hula hoops in the gym during the class competition assembly Jan. 20. Students competed in a relay race where they spun around, raced on scooters, hoola hooped and attempted to throw a basketball into the net.
photo by: a. gustafson

CLASS V. CLASS

seniors win winter week and coveted spirit stick with class competition skills

PULL IT TOGETHER

Brady Campbell '24 pulls the rope in a game of tug-of-war during the class competition assembly in the gym Jan. 20. The assembly took place in addition to the school's first ever Sadie Hawkins dance, which occurred the night of the assembly.
photo by: c. farson

TUGGING TEACHERS

Faculty members participate in a game of tug-of-war during the class competition assembly in the gym Jan. 20. Staff played against the seniors and lost. "I thought that tug-of-war was the best because it was the most exciting and everybody got the most hyped," Sam Berger '25 said.
photo by: c. yeater

BRASS BUDS

NOT TO TOOT OUR OWN HORN...

Abigail Mendus '23 smiles in the band section of the bleachers during the class competition assembly Jan. 20. The band played "Apache" and "Seven Nation Army" for the assembly. "I love playing for assemblies and the class competition is always a fun one to observe with friends," Ava Stotler '24 said.
photo by: a. gustafson

SAXY AND I KNOW IT

Ava Stotler '24 plays her instrument during the annual class competition assembly in the gym Jan. 20. "Although it is super fun, some of our instruments can get super heavy," Stotler said.
photo by: a. gustafson

TRICKY TRIVIA

Tori Greer '25 holds a whiteboard in front of the sophomore section at the annual class competition assembly Jan. 20. Classes earned some of their points through a game of trivia.
photo by: a. gustafson

DRIVING ME QUIZ-ZY

Kendall Deford '23 writes on a whiteboard in front of the senior section at the class competition assembly Jan. 20. A StuCo member represented each grade in several rounds of trivia. "Everyone shouting the answers at me was overwhelming but we still did great," Deford said.
photo by: a. gustafson

IT'S A DATE

Karlie Chase '25 and Emmy Rosenmeyer '26 take part in a blindfold speeddating game in the gym during the annual class competition assembly Jan. 20. A girl from each grade was chosen to answer questions asked by a student council member, then a senior boy picked which contestant he liked the most.
photo by: a. gustafson

TRIVIAL MATTERS

competition between different grade levels

TUGGING TOGETHER

forces collide as students face other students and staff members in a game of tug-of-war