

IN THE PACK

Pass to each other, score together

Most people can agree: it is important to have a positive and encouraging environment for sports teams. In the end, the environment is what really makes it fun, enjoyable, and a true community. This year, the boys soccer team has been successful because they have been improving their teamwork aspect and are excited to see where it takes them in this season and seasons to come. "If everyone likes each other, then you'll have a good positive team that encourages each other," commented Nathan Hurt, Sr.

- 1. Varsity Soccer, celebrating the league win against Mesa Ridge.
- 2. Peter Felling Jr., sending the ball across the field.
- 3. Varsity, pep talk before the game.
- 4. Dylan Dooyema Jr., defending the ball from his opponents.

Bad HAIR Day?

This year, in preparation for playoffs, the men's soccer team bleached their hair. You may have noticed their blonde heads around campus. This not only brought the team closer together but also created a new tradition. "The team that won state last year all bleached their hair and won so we thought it would be a cool idea," says Ian Abernethy, Jr.

COUGAR COMEBACK

From the bottom to the top, Cougars achieve historic win in first round of State play

You would think that no one would believe they could do it: go from 32nd seed to beating the number one seed in the first round. But you'd be wrong; Coronado's Men's soccer team was all confidence heading into the 4A CHSAA State Playoffs. "Your Varsity Soccer team is headed to destroy Durango in the first round," Coach Marcus Corbett told Mr. Ottmer before loading the bus. While Durango had a much better record, this time- they didn't have a better game. Coronado came out on top. And while we don't remember who won 4A this year, we'll never forget their bleached hair and boss victory. "When you (teachers) see some of our yellow and orange heads in your classroom, be sure to congratulate the boys. They've worked hard to achieve this historic result," Coach Kyle Yeh commented as he glowed with pride.
