

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

1. Lillian Manier, Jr., helping Peter Krause, Fr., set up for a strike.
2. Avery Clark, Fr., flashing her contagious smile in the bowling alley.
3. Peter Krause, Fr., and Lillian Manier, Jr., high fived after knocking the pins down.
4. Our very own special ed team at the pumpkin patch.
5. Cougar athletes and our special ed team getting interviewed by the news.

"Bowling is my favorite field trip because I love knocking the bowling pins down!"
 AVERY SELDA CLARK, FR.

UNIFIED as ONE

What does the word "Unified" mean to you? The definition of the word "Unified" is: to make something united, or in other terms, whole.

Coronado's Special Education Department created "unified" shirts because the Special Ed department is one of the things that truly makes Coronado special. One school. One family. Unified.

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

Special Education

“Our shirts say Coronado is Unified; I would say it means anyone can do a good job working together no matter of intellectual disabilities or not.”

LILLIAN MANIER, JR.

The Coronado Special Education Department has a "Work Hard, Play Hard" mentality.

Coronado students and staff can see the Special Education Department working hard each week as students travel between the buildings delivering mail and collecting the recycling.

Ja'deanna Robbins, Jr., works with the recycling program and the mail program. "I like working the mail program more because I used to do it at my old high school," Ja'deanna said.

But it's not all work and no play! According to Special Education teacher Trevor Peterson, the Coronado Special Education Department gets hands-on learning experiences each week with a different valuable field trip.

After every field trip, the Special Needs Department takes the students out to eat. Ja'deanna reflected that, "after our fields trips my favorite place to eat is Burger King."

The special education students really enjoy their special duties throughout the week-almost as much as they enjoy their field trips and takeout!

1. The Special Ed Department on a field trip to the Dinosaur Museum.
2. Lillian Manier, Jr., Isaiah Mast, So., and Curtis Thomas, Fr., all posing for a picture.
3. Paul Haskew, Fr., Cody Reinnuth, Sr., collecting the recycling.
4. Micaiah Hewitt, Jr., cool as always, at the Halloween party.
5. Eleu Cowdery, Fr., posing for a picture with a fancy hat and a rose.
6. Cody Reinnuth, Sr., driving the tractor around the pumpkin patch.

“I love working on the recycling program because we do it every week, three times a week. We always go during 6th period although it is hard especially on Mondays.”

- CURTIS THOMAS, FR.