

huddle up Alamosa High School's
 volleyball team comes together to discuss their game plan during a time out. Head coach Annie Mortensen helps the girls regain their composure and take a breath in the middle of an intense match up against the Centauri Falcons. There are lots of nerves leading up to these games which make it just as much of a mental battle as it is physical.

she said no!
 Junior Lily Heersink and
 freshman Arreli Felix put up a solid double block against the Fowler Grizzlies.

dynamic duo
 Juniors Morgan Ortega
 and Taybor Wiedeman
 work together as they both play on the right side of the court.

chick chick boom!
 Sophomore Laci
 Christensen analyzes the block and swings around it.

move as one
 The girls get into position as their opponent attempts to make a play on the outside of the court.
 This season the team
 transitioned extremely
 well on defense,
 which helped them
 excel on the offensive
 end.

pass
 set
 hit

slay
 Junior setter
 Morgan Ortega
 reached a major accomplishment of 2,000 career assists
 this season during their game against the Delta Panthers.

