

school spirit
The teachers at AHS are festive and participate to build relationships with the students. The students and teachers dress up every day as different decades to have fun and get in the school spirit. The social studies teachers Mr. Dorsey, Mrs. McQuitty, Mr. Sandlin, and Mrs. Ramirez dress up as protesters in the 70's. Mrs Heredia dressed up as if she was in the 80's. The students all dressed up as the 50's for one of the spirit days. Vanessa Villalva, Jeremiah Delacedra, and Kennedy Hillis dressed up together to show their school spirit. As well as Junior Brayden Moeller participates in spirit days.

Senior Michael Motz participated in the 70's dress up day. As well as juniors Brindi Gallegos and Lexany Heredia dressed up to support 80's day. All three of these students support and have fun with the homecoming spirit week themes. Dressing up every day for spirit week is a Alamosa tradition that happens every year before homecoming.
