MIDDLE: During the fire that happened in January, Anthony Bruszewski, 11, had left to go get more corn starch for culinary class, and came back to the fire trucks being outside. It was just him and his corn starch in the field.

BOTTOM: Here we have Joshua Neddo, 9, participated in anything but a backpack day, bringing his trash bag.

At Odyssey ECCO, our students were given the same opportunities they would have at other schools, and more. Odyssey still had dances, outside of school events, extracurricular activities such as sports, and more, just like a standard school. Additionally, Odyssey students, during their tenure, would eventually make their way off campus, which typically offered with it a drastically different work schedule.
