

Getting out the door for class at 7:50 seems, impossible but somehow we make it.

Mornings seem to take forever since we can barely make it to the 2nd hour break. Thank goodness for those extra 10 minutes. Hey, did you hear the softball team is heading to state for the first time? Way to go, girls

Nothing like eagerly watching the minutes count down until lunch. Pizza or chinese? You pick.

Yes, I got chosen. Watch me race down the Slip n' Slide during the homecoming assembly. You know the seniors are going to win again.
