MAKING HISTORY:
Reese Olson '24 and her teammates celebrate the first goal of the girls' hockey state championship on Feb. 11. Neither team scored until the second period. "It was relieving to score first," Olson said. "We got a lot of confidence from it."

TOO LOUD TO HANDLE:
Trying to distract the opposing Douglas County player, Ismael Nieto Villa '24 yells at him on Jan. 26. DC won 62-49. "Our team was holding up pretty well against DC which made the crowd get hyped because no one expected it," Nieto Villa said.

WINNING THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP IN THIS INAUGURAL SEASON MADE ME THRILLED AND EXCITED FOR MY TEAM. IT MADE ME FEEL EMPOWERED BECAUSE WE'RE AN UNDERESTIMATED SPORT, BUT IT MADE ME MAD AT FIRST WHEN CHSAA DIDN'T RECOGNIZE US. HOPEFULLY WE CAN BUILD INTO A CHSAA SANCTIONED SPORT SOON."

BOW DOWN BOWSER: Ms. Eileen Salzman pops out of a castle at Showdown on Sept. 21. Ms. Salzman's Advisement decorated the trashcan as Bowser's Castle. "Another student was going to do it, but he was sick, so last minute I got in the trash can instead."

Salzman said. SHINY GOLD: Logan Weir '24 poses for the camera after beating Douglas County on Sept. 15. LAUGH OUT LOUD: Mackinzie Rathbun '25 laughs in between Showdown events on Sept. 21. SHOUT IT OUT: Anthony Brogan '25 competes at cheer leagues on Oct. 10.

FOR EVERY STUDENT WONDERING WHAT MAKES US UNIQUE,

IT'S THE JUXTAPOSITION OF STANDING OPPOSED AND CELEBRATING TOGETHER, GETTING LOUD AND SITTING QUIET, TRYING TO BE SEEN AND WANTING TO HIDE. BUT MORE SPECIFICALLY,

IT'S MS. EILEEN SALZMAN'S FACE BEAMING WITH PRIDE, DESPITE BEING DRESSED AS BOWSER, BECAUSE GOING ALL OUT FOR THE SENIOR CLASS IS WHAT IT TAKES TO WIN SHOWDOWN.

IT'S ANTHONY BROGAN '25 AND THE CHEER TEAM GOING ALL OUT FOR TWO AND A HALF MINUTES, JUST TO PLACE SECOND AT LEAGUES. BUT PERSONALLY, WE DON'T LIKE TO LOSE, SO WE WON A STATE TITLE TWO MONTHS LATER.

IT'S BRAVING A COLD SEPTEMBER NIGHT, SO WE CAN SEE OUR CLASSMATES HOLDING UP THE BATTLE OF THE ROCK TROPHY AFTER BEATING DOUGLAS COUNTY. DON'T ACT SO SURPRISED. DC MESSED AROUND AND MADE IT PERSONAL.

WHEN THINGS GET PERSONAL, WE GET TOGETHER, WE GET LOUD AND WE TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS.

AND PERSONAL IS THE QUIET MOMENTS, LIKE IN OUR GRIEF AND IN OUR ART.

WATCH AS LILY MEDINA '25 AND BLISS JORDAN '26 GIGGLE WHILE THEY KNIT, SIMPLY BEING PRESENT AND STEPPING AWAY FROM THE STRESSES OF HIGH SCHOOL.

BE CAREFUL NOT TO COUGH FROM THE SMELL OF PAINT BECAUSE YOU MAY INTERRUPT REMI BEAVERS' '26 TRAIN OF CREATIVE THOUGHT.

FEEL YOUR CHEEKS GET FLUSH WHILE YOU CHOKE BACK YOUR TEARS FROM WATCHING SLOAN WILSON '25 HOLD UP HER TEAMMATE AFTER THE STATE MEET.

THE CONTRAST OF THESE MOMENTS, EITHER AGAINST EACH OTHER OR AGAINST OURSELVES, MAKES US UNIQUE.

BUT YOU WOULDN'T UNDERSTAND.

IT'S PERSONAL.

WHEEL OF WONDER: Deciding on their next stroke, Remi Beavers '26 ponders for a second on Nov. 10. For AP Art, Beavers had to complete five projects that followed one theme. "We are working on a portfolio for college board submission at the end of the year," Beavers said.

KNOT IN THE MOOD: Too busy laughing at a joke, Bliss Jordan '26 and Lily Medina '25 knit away on Oct. 23. The two joined Knitting and Crochet Club to escape life for an hour once a week. "It's really chill and the people are really nice," Medina said

FINAL RACE: Shortly after crossing the finish line on Oct. 29, Sloan Wilson '25 holds up her teammate, Reese Plummer '24. The two had ran personal bests at the state meet to end the season. "State was a lot of fun," Wilson said. "We placed the best we ever have as a program."

MOMENTS

THIS IS SCHOOL. OF COURSE YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE ENGLISH AND MATH, MAYBE EVEN ART OR SPANISH.

BUT, YOU MIGHT ALSO JOIN A CLUB OR TWO.

MAYBE YOU'LL BUY A TICKET TO SEE FROZEN,
BUT YOU BETTER SHOW UP FOR SHOWDOWN.

WHATEVER IT IS, FIND SOMETHING THAT KEEPS YOU COMING BACK EACH DAY.

THERE IS A LOT HAPPENING ALL THE TIME, BUT TRUST
US. YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS ANY OF IT.

SHOW UP AND SHOW OUT:

Austin Formes '27 participates in the Showdown tug-a-war on Sept. 21 with other freshmen. "It was fun. I really liked it," said Formes. "There was definitely a lot of energy in the gym."

SHOWCASING OUR
CREATIVITY: Makenna Osterloh '24 works on her AP Art portfolio alongside a friend in class on Nov. 10.

"The teachers all have different forms of expertise so you can always ask a different art teacher what you can improve on," Osterloh said.

EXPRESS IT: Zachary Young '25 finds his inner character on stage during Frozen on Nov. 10. "I love how it just allows me to be free and express myself," Young said.

READY UP PLAYER: Focused on the game, Alexander Palamara '25 battles it out in Mario Kart on Dec. 6. "I just think games are a lot of fun to play," Palamara said.

"I like our football program, I think holds us accountable," Kloster said. FLYING HIGH: Lila Ku '27 leads the student section through a cheer on Sept. 9, while holding a "Noise" sign. "I was really shocked when I made varsity because I didn't think I would," Ku said. ROWDY RACE: Ava King '25 leads a pack on Oct. 29 at the state championship meet. "It was so exciting running for my team and looking competing for something bigger than myself," King said. POKE AND CHECK: Jackson Jones corners his opponent up against the wall on Dec. 22. "I'm coaching people instead of players," Mr. Kyle Stovall said. "I wouldn't trade it for anything, I love every second." DELIVERING GOALS: Evan Bernstein '26 crosses the ball into the box on Aug. 23. "It was really nice and fun getting to know my teammates," Bernstein said.

SPORTS ARE MORE THAN SCORES AND STATISTICS. SPORTS TEACH US RESILIENCE, STRUGGLE, AND HOW TO CELEBRATE GRITTY WINS AND DISAPPOINTING LOSSES. YOU KNOW THAT FEELING, WHEN YOU LOSE YOUR VOICE THE MORNING AFTER CV V. DC GAMES BECAUSE YOU GOT TOO LOUD. WHEN YOUR BODY FEELS TOO EXHAUSTED TO PUSH ON, BUT YOU CONTINUE TO PUT ONE FOOT IN FRONT OF THE OTHER BECAUSE YOUR FRIENDS NEED YOU. WHEN YOU CAN PUT ASIDE RIVALRY BANTER AND BUILD LASTING FRIENDSHIPS BECAUSE YOU ARE REPRESENTING US ON AND OFF THE FIELD. IT'S DOING WHATEVER IT TAKES TO WIN. BECAUSE IT MEANS TOO MUCH TO US TO LOSE.

WE ARE MORE THAN NUMBERS AND GRADES. WE ARE KIDS TOO. WHILE THE COMMITMENT TO SCHOOL OFTEN OVERPOWERS OUR DAYS, WE ESCAPE THE REALITIES OF GRADUATION TO PLAY GAMES IN THE GYM AS A SENIOR CLASS. WE DRESS UP AND DANCE UNTIL OUR FEET GET SORE IN THE CONVERSE WE CHANGED INTO. EVERYBODY KNOWS YOU DON'T WEAR HEELS TO THE DANCE. WE POSE WITH EACH MEDAL OR BANNER WE WIN BECAUSE WE WORKED FOR HOURS EVERYDAY TO EARN IT. IT'S JUST WHAT KIDS DO. IT'S JUST WHO WE ARE.

DANCING AWAY: Kyleigh Boyd '27 poses for the camera at the Homecoming dance on Sept. 21. "Getting to hang out with all my friends and getting chosen for homecoming court was a great experience," Boyd said. GET HYPE: Kai Bell '24 celebrates with the seniors at Showdown on Sept. 21. "It's a lot of fun showing school spirit," Bell said. DISTRACTING DUDES: At the Castle View v. Douglas

LIFE HAPPENS BEYOND THE CLASSROOM, AND WE KNOW THAT. IT'S THE REASON WHY WE GET INVOLVED, AND ARE CHALLENGING OUR PEERS TO A GAME OF CHESS, WHY WE'RE GETTING DRESSED UP TO CHEER UNDER THE FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS, WHY WE'RE PERFORMING IN THE WINTER ORCHESTRA CONCERT FOR OUR COMMUNITY. BECAUSE WE KNOW THAT SCHOOL IS MORE THAN ACADEMICS. IT'S THE TIME WE SPEND TOGETHER, AND IT'S DOING THE THINGS WE LOVE. COMPETITIVE CHAIRS:

Max Difelice '25 yells at Jenner Davis '25 during a game of musical chairs on Feb. 9. The game took place during a school-wide assembly to kick off off MAD Week. "I beat Jenner. It honestly was really fun. I like beating Jenner," Difelice said. TOO LOUD TO HANDLE:

Ashton Showers '24 sings to the crowd as he performs during Frozen the Musical on Nov. 10. Showers played Hans, the musical's villain. "It was fun and a little intimidating to play something negative on stage," Showers said, "but I gained a lot from learning how to play a different kind of role."
